Standard Condition # 6: You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Dallas' conditions were reviewed with him on September 12, 2017. He signed and acknowledged understanding of his conditions including the standard condition as noted above.

On December 20 and 21, 2017, this officer spoke with Mr. Dallas' father. According to Mr. Dallas' father, the offender did not stay the night at his approved address on December 19 and 20, 2017. Mr. Dallas' father is unaware of the offender's current location and is concerned for the safety of the offender. Mr. Dallas failed to notify this officer that he would be changing his living arrangements.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court issue a warrant requiring the offender to appear to answer to the allegations contained in this petition.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: December 21, 2017
